Narrative:

During the overnight hours of July 27, 2009 to July 28, 2009, numerous acts of criminal mischief were committed in the Circle C neighborhood of Southwest Austin. The cases all involved vehicle windows being shot out with BB guns.

The Southwest detectives began investigating the crimes and identified four suspects in the cases. Warrants were issued for the three adults and one juvenile.

The four were charged with criminal mischief, a state jail felony after nine of the cases were linked. The Southwest detectives believe the suspects may be responsible for nearly 60 cases that occurred over several nights which resulted in thousands of dollars of damage to vehicles.
